Habitat for Humanity of Pinellas County is seeking a strategic, business-oriented Chief Financial Officer to join a dynamic team of professionals committed to the vision of a world where everyone has a decent place to live.

Habitat for Humanity of Pinellas County, as a locally run affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International, is part of a global nonprofit housing organization operated on Christian principles that seeks to put God's love into action by building homes, communities and hope. Partnering with our community, Habitat for Humanity of Pinellas County brings community volunteers, corporate donors, civic organizations and faith groups together to build affordable homes for struggling, low-income families and individuals throughout Pinellas County.

Reporting to and partnering with the chief executive officer (CEO), the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) will be responsible for developing, managing and overseeing the organization's financial operations, planning and reporting functions to support annual and strategic goals, in conjunction with the board of directors and finance committee. As an integral member of the Executive Team, the CFO will provide financial guidance, leadership and actionable recommendations to the CEO and other senior leaders. The CFO is also responsible for overseeing the IT, Risk Management and Human Resources functions.

The ideal candidate will be a positive, energetic, hands-on leader with a deep passion for the Habitat for Humanity mission and the ability to excite and motivate a wide range of stakeholders and will meet the following qualifications:

- Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting or Finance; MBA preferred; CPA a plus.
- Seven + years of broad financial management experience, ideally beginning in accounting, including experience in financial analysis and modeling and providing guidance to senior leadership.
- Experience as part of a senior leadership team.
- Proven ability to manage a small team of professionals responsible for finance and administration including HR and IT. Experience working in a small team environment
- Comprehensive knowledge of GAAP and job costing.
- Strong communication, interpersonal, advanced analytical and organizational skills a must.
- Prior experience in nonprofit accounting and/or housing finance preferred.

Compensation is commensurate with the experience and qualifications required for this position. Habitat offers a generous benefit plan including:

- Paid time off
- 100% employer paid health insurance, life insurance ($25K) and long-term disability insurance
- 401(k) match
- Flexible Spending and Dependent Care accounts

Habitat is an equal opportunity employer. Applicants are considered for positions without regard to veteran status, uniformed service member status, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, physical or mental disability, genetic information or any other category protected by applicable federal, state, or local laws.

To apply, send 1) a cover letter outlining your interest in and qualifications for the position along with your salary requirements (a range is acceptable) and 2) your resume, to resumes@nonprofitfinancepros.com. Application deadline is May 15th. If you meet the minimum requirements for the position, you will be contacted about next steps in the process.
